

How You Can Help

Toys, Used But Serviceable,
For Families Unable To Buy Them

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
Just at this time of the year parents are buying new toys and other Christmas things for their children and I was wondering if there were not a large number of used toys usable and serviceable for the children of my family.

I know times are far better than other Christmases but still there are here in Rockland large families which will have no money to buy toys and other things, and these toys that are being replaced by new ones would be of good service in my department.

While I am about it I have four elderly ladies, receiving old age assistance, yet are in need of outing flannel nightgowns and with their small allowance have no money to buy these necessities. These good souls must not lie cold this winter
when there are enough warm-hearted friends in Rockland who would gladly supply these needed things. Don't forget mittens and stockings.

Tel. 663-M or 663-W.

Helen Corbett.

Off To The Wars

Seven Knox County men left Rockland yesterday morning for military service, reporting at the Portland Induction Station. The leader of the group was Richard G.
Ellingwood. Those with a "V" on their names were volunteers. The list:

(V) Forrest Cecil Adams, Thom-

aston.

(V) Donald Francis King, Rock-

land.

(V) Clifton Boyden Mitchell,

Rockland.

(V) Arthur James Cayton, Rock-

land.

(V) Clarence Henry Goulding,

Took An Icy Bath

Joseph E. Witham, 85, who makes his home with his niece, Mrs.
Arthur F. Wall of Pearl street fell from a small motor boat tied up at the wharf in the rear of The Courier-Gazette plant, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Witham was enjoying his favorite sport of fishing for smelts,
and probably dozed off and lost his balance. Arthur G. Hall of Willow street, another smelt fisherman,
was on the nearby wharf of W. H.
Glover Company, and noticing Witham's plight, hurried to his assistance. Hall, with help from William G. Richards, who happened to be on the wharf, "fished" Mr. Witham from the water.

He was taken to the home of Mrs.
Wall, who said, late Tuesday afternoon, "He was pretty wet but he's allright now."

UNDERWOOD PLANT IS SOLD

New Owner, Green Island Packing Company,
To Build New Factory In The Spring

One of the largest real estate deals which has taken place in this city in recent years was consummated Tuesday when the William Underwood Company's property on the Messer wharf passed into the possession of the Green Island
Packing Company.

Details as to the price paid were not divulged, but the property has an assessed value of $34,000 and represents one of the best pieces of real estate on the Rockland waterfront.

With the coming of Spring will begin the construction of a two-story factory 150x50 feet, where operations will start in about seven months, employing between 50 and 75 hands.

This important deal was negotiated by Freeman S. Young, adding to the many important transactions which have gone through his office in recent years. To Mr. Young the deal affords special satisfaction because of the effect it will have upon Rockland's industrial status. Over and above his desire to succeed in the real estate business has been his aim to bring about deals which will benefit the whole city. "I don't want our children to go away to find employment," he told The Courier-Gazette, when the deal was announced. "I want them to get their education here and find work here."

The property included in the transfer is a wharf built on oak and spruce piling, a building 400 feet long by 270 feet wide, boilers which were new in 1928, and considerable of the packing machinery
used by the Underwoods.

The stand was formerly known as the Messer lime burning plant and was one of the locations of the East Coast Fisheries Company later known as the Deep Sea Fisheries, Company, when that concern was having its brief and meteoric career.

The proposed factory will be built on the open wharf space on the southeast corner of the property.

The Green Island Packing Company, named for the early scene of its prosperous endeavors, will pack round cans of herring and mackerel, and sardines and pickled herring
in barrels. Some of the sardine packing machinery left by the Underwoods when they ceased operations there were included in the big deal.

Until the new plant is ready for occupancy the company will continue operations in its factory at the Public Landing, canning herring and mackerel and pickling herring.

The concern started business early in 1942, composed of men who know the fishing business from A to Z, and who grew up in that atmosphere. The present factory is leased from its owners, Rackliff & Witham of which James M. Pease is president and Elmer Witham is vice president. The organization was revamped after the death of Roland S. Rackliff.

SARDINE CEILING PRICE

Processors' ceiling prices for Maine sardines will be cut 12 1/2 cents a case tomorrow the OPA announced. The cut was ordered because keys used as can openers no longer are provided with this product. due to wartime metal restrictions. OPA said the adjustment probably will have no effect on retail prices.

ENDS ROCKLAND PASTORATE

Rev. Mr. Welker Will Join Personnel Department Of Bath Iron Works

In conducting the wedding of Miss Maizie Joy, Wednesday night, Rev. Roy A. Welker performed his last official act as pastor of the Rockland Congregational Church,
his resignation having been accepted at the church meeting of Nov. 22.
Mr. Welker volunteered last June for Rehabilitation and Child Welfare Work in France with the Congregational Service Committee, whose work is carried on in collaboration with the American Friends Service Committee.

The trend of events in the European area has since made it inadvisable and almost impossible for any of this work to be done in France, three of whose Atlantic ports are still in German hands.
Meanwhile Mr. Welker has accepted a position with the Bath Iron Works in the Personnel Department.

During Mr. Welker's pastorate
the church has completely renovated the parsonage, painting inside and out, repaired the walls, put in a new concrete floor in basement and a new heating system. The Church has been painted on the outside.

Mr. Welker has been particularly interested in work with the young people and in the preaching services. He has been moderator of the Lincoln Association of Congregational Christian Churches, member of several important committees, and official delegate to the National Council of Congregational-Christian Churches, as well as advisor and consultant of the Congregational Service Committee.

During the first World War and years following, Mr. Welker spent most of the period until the close of 1928 in Prison Camp work in Austria and Switzerland, with our army in France and in War Orphan
work in France following the Armistice. After his return to America he spent six years as pastor on Long Island, N. Y., and several as Industrial Relations Counsellor in Connecticut. He says that he has been equally happy in Child Welfare Work, or in Industrial Relations work, or in the ministry, feeling that each one of these fields offers great opportunity for Christian service. Mrs. Welker has been President of the Woman's Associa-

Rev. Roy A. Welker

tion of the Church for two years and has been actively connected with all of its organizations.

Their two children have graduated from Rockland High School.
Mary Louise is now a Junior in Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., in the Physical Education Department, and John Bal-van is a Freshman at Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

The Welkers wish to express their gratitude for the many courtesies extended to them by the members of the church, of the Parish and to the Rockland folks. They leave with them their sincere good wishes.

Findings On Municipal Survey

Roland G. Ware, president of Rockland Chamber of Commerce, has sent the following notice to members of the Municipal Government Survey Committee:

"On Feb. 4, your Chamber appointed a committee to look into the matter of Municipal Government Survey, etc. This committee reported back its findings and on March 21 1944 a meeting of interested citizens was called, at which time the Rockland (Maine) Citizens' Committee on Municipal Research was formed.

"Now this committee is ready to report on The Survey, and proposed New City Charter, and elect members of a new Charter Adoption Committee. This meeting will be held Friday at 7.30 p. m. in the Tower Room of the Community Building. Since you, as a member of the Chamber, are of course interested in your city government, you are cordially invited and urged to attend, and to bring interested friends along."

Hanging To Doorknob

Marius Martinson of Wil-

Discovery

The body of Barney Olson of Willardham, St. George, was found hanging to the door knob Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Marius Martinson with whom he had made his home. Mr.
Martinson, who had been away for a week, returned to his home and being unable to get in, opened a window and upon entrance into the house, found the body. Authorities think the remains had been there since Friday night.

Mr. Olson had been engaged in painting in Port Clyde during the Summer.

Charles W. Sheldon, who conducts a drug store at The Brook watched the front of the opposite block trying to solve the mystery of the disappearing sparrows. In the removal of a sign a small cavity had been left. The sharp-eyed birds discovered it and set up housekeeping there.

A well known Rockland man who never passes up an opportunity to give somebody a lift when he is out motoring, became less enthusiastic on the subject Tuesday when a thafikless man who had been given a ride slammed the car door to on the owner's foot. Maybe you will recognize the luckless owner
when you see him limping along the street, and maybe he will tell you how he kept the injured foot
in hot water for an hour that night.
And I neglected to add that the hitchhiker attempted to negotiate a loan in order that he might go to the pictures.

Book Review

K. S. F.

For Your Meditation. By Beulah Edge. The Christopher Publishing House, Boston.

With deep devotion to the intimate knowledge, through study of psychology, religion and personal trends in a research philosophy of her own, this little book by Beulah Edge shows what can be accomplished by meditations.

It took years to come to the finer conclusions reached. These are days when just such help is sought by the many in need of peace of mind and clearer knowledge of help if sought from divine sources.

All too many of this generation are failing to command what is theirs to enjoy in the peace of Christian faith. Here is a fine help.

Kathleen S. Fuller

I never kiss, I never neck.
I never say hell, I never say heck.
I'm always good, I'm always nice.
I play no poker, I shake no dice.
I never drink, I never flirt.
I never gossip, or spread the dirt.
I have no line, or funny tricks.
But anyway—I'm only six!

A life-size bust of Wendell Willkie was completed by Suzanne Silvercray, sculptor. Miss Silvercray, the wife of Major Edward Stevenson, of the United States Army Signal Corps, has done busts of Jesse Jones, Major General Claire L. Chennault, Lewis Douglas and Herbert Hoover. Mr. Willkie sat for the bust last Spring.

"I suppose," said the pompous city visitor, "there are many peculiar characters in an old village like this."

"A few," admitted the native, "but most of them are here in the Summer months."

[EDITORIAL]

Endorsed by Gov. Sewall the observance of Universal Bible Sunday will take place in many Maine churches the coming Sunday. "In this time of great stress," says His Excellency "our people turn for spiritual aid and comfort to the Bible. The American Bible Society in its free distribution of millions of Bibles is performing an immeasurable service. I most earnestly hope that the American people will give wholehearted support to this Society's efforts."

This year Universal Bible Sunday makes a fitting climax for the Nationwide Bible Reading, from Thanksgiving to Christmas. Millions of American service men and women and their families and great numbers of other Americans have joined in this program of the daily reading of the Scriptures, using a list of favorite Bible passages chosen from a poll of 100,000 pastors and over 5,000 chaplains. Over 12,000,000 lists of the passages, published in a handy form of bookmark, and a million V-Mail letters, in which the passages were printed have been sent out by the American Bible Society in response to the requests which have been received at the Society's headquarters in New York City.

ROCKET BOMBS Aerial fireworks used with such deadly effect by the Germans within recent months are going to be employed on the larger and more deadly scale by the American forces, but not however, in the indiscriminate manner with which the Huns have slain the undefended and innocent. The Navy is to spend $100,000,000, a month on rocket ammunition, alone, and it will be used to spray death upon Japanese machine-guns as a cover for landing operations. Terrible as war has always been the method of attack hitherto used has long since become passe. The Germans realized that when they set out to conquer the world, little dreaming of the awful vengeance which would so soon be brought upon them. Just as the Japs are learning it. It is all devastating and the cost in lives and property is beyond computation, but seems to be the quickest way of ending the war.

With local shipyards divested of their wartime activities the thoughts of the average citizen turn naturally to the fishing industry as the most natural means of furnishing a livelihood for many men and a prosperous business for ready capital. Significant this week was the purchase by the Green Island Packing Company of the Underwood property on the Rockland water front. The news story in another column tells of the brilliant future which it forebodes, beginning with the construction of one of the largest fish plants on the Maine coast. Rockland already has several concerns which take their living almost from their dooryards and which send abroad through the country products of highest standard. Rockland may well look to the fishing grounds for a large measure of its future prosperity.

OUR FUTURE With local shipyards divested of their wartime activities the thoughts of the average citizen turn naturally to the fishing industry as the most natural means of furnishing a livelihood for many men and a prosperous business for ready capital. THE SEA With local shipyards divested of their wartime activities the thoughts of the average citizen turn naturally to the fishing industry as the most natural means of furnishing a livelihood for many men and a prosperous business for ready capital. LICKING THE FUEL PROBLEM Maine's fuel problem can be licked, and there need be no serious discomfort this Winter. So says Frank E. Southard, State Fuel Administrator but he cautions that alternate fuels such as bituminous coal or anthracite, which will not be more than 87½ percent of normal. "Burn only enough coal to maintain a temperature of 68 to 70 degrees, and don't allow heat to escape," advises the administrator.

PUGILIST MAKES PROPHECY Commander Jack Dempsey, formerly the world's Number One man in the prize ring, is quoted as saying that the war will last five years. We are not disputing the ex-pugilist, not to his face, at least, but will somebody please tell us how there will be anything left to fight for five years hence at the present rate of destruction?

WHAT A WEEK FOR SHOPPING! What a pity that a majority of the Christmas buyers could not have done their shopping under the abnormally splendid weather conditions which have prevailed this week. No snow on the ground to impede traffic (though in the days of sleighing and sledding this was considered a great asset), complete and perfect stocks of goods in the stores; clerks not too weary to wait upon you promptly—these and a dozen other equally good reasons should impel the buyers to shop early.

BACK DOOR ATTACK BY JAPAN It is time to look at China. Since this past Summer the Japanese have won a rail- and road route from central China to Indo-China. A further drive of less than a hundred miles in the direction their armies have already developed momentum will give them a complete overland supply line from the Russian border to Singapore. They have taken the advance bases of the 14th American Air Force. Free China is now cut off from the Chinese coast.

In the face of the accelerating American drive across the Pacific, the destruction of a critical proportion of its naval power in both surface ships and planes, and the approaching reopening of the Burma Road, Japan has swung the weight of its strategic effort to the Asiatic mainland.

What the Japanese hope to accomplish by this is plain. They hope to confront the Allies with a beaten and occupied China. Then there will be no ally left to reinforce when the supply trucks roll in over the Burma Road. Then the Allies must furnish the manpower as well as the munitions. They hope to move the major theater of war to where the great Allied superiority on the sea and in the air is neutralized and their own power on land tips the scales; to where Allied armies and supplies must move in by the Burma Road or fight their way inland from the China coast.

And perhaps all of this is but the means to their main objective: to create the prospect of so long a war that the Western peoples will accept a bargained peace and leave Japan the bulk of its spoils. The Japanese well know that to the Occidental mind the Far East is another world, and they may hope that a long and costly war, made to appear as though fought for the soil of China, might find dwindling support among Americans and British.

But there is good reason to believe that Japan can be beaten elsewhere than on the mainland. So it is also time to keep on watching the sea approaches to Japan itself. —Christian Science Monitor.

15th Army Air Force in Italy; Sgt. Theodore B. Caddy, 28, of 15 Laurel street, Rockland, has been authorized to wear a second battle star, according to an announcement by the 15th air force.

He received the award as a member of a veteran 15th AAF Liberator Bomber group which has flown numerous bombing missions in direct support of the invasion of Southern France during August and September.

The group, commanded by Col. Thomas W. Steed, of Etowah, Tenn. is a veteran of more than 145 combat missions and was previously awarded a battle star for its participation in the Italian combat zone. The Battle Stars are worn on the European-African-Middle Eastern Theatre Ribbon.

An Air Service Station in England—2nd Lt. Lauri A. Hendrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hendrickson of Friendship, recently completed an orientation course designed to bridge the gap between training in the States and combat soldiering against the enemy in Germany. At this Air Service Command Station Lt. Hendrickson attended a series of lectures given by veterans of this command which included instructions on chemical warfare defense and pertinent tips on staying healthy in a combat zone. His next station will be one which America's fighting planes cover our advance into Germany. Before entering the Army Air Forces, he was employed as an electric welder by the Bath Iron Works, Corp. in Bath.

"Pard" Kenyon Gives An Informal Talk On Recent Western Trip

Rev. Ernest O. Kenyon was speaker at the Lions meeting Wednesday noon, and told an interesting story of the high lights of his recent vacation trip, which extended as far West as Lansing and Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Kenyon had the pleasure of the company of a Brazilian doctor as section mate on the train going West; discussed to some extent the race problem. He described his impressions while attending the opera La Traviata, and other entertainments. The speaker was introduced by A. F. Russell of the program committee.

President Bradford Burgess appointed W. F. Senter, H. P. Crockett and G. S. Grant to act as board of review at Sea Scouts meeting, Dec. 14; an interesting letter, from William H. Romanoff, S2c who is stationed at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was read, and Frank H. Ingraham mentioned that he lunched in Augusta one day last week with former member, Lieut. George I. Shaw, safety director of the Maine State Police. Several members of the club are planning to attend a zone meeting to be held in Waldoboro Tuesday night.

Appeared In Life

Picture Of Sgt. Ralph H. Munro Of Rockland In Nov. 13 Edition

Friends of Sgt. Ralph H. Munro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney F. Munro of Bay View square, Rockland, will be interested to know that his picture appeared in Life Magazine, Nov. 13, on page 125. Sgt. Munro wrote his wife, the former Jeannette Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almon C. Carter of 220 Camden street, and Mr. Carter scouted around until he located a copy.

Sgt. Munro is the fifth from the left of a group of eight shown at the top of the page, in an article entitled, "Life Visits a Prisoner of War Camp," and was taken at Camp Breckinridge, Ky., where several hundred German prisoners, taken in Africa and in France, are held. Sgt. Munro, employed two years as a presser at the M. & G. Sportwear Company, enlisted in the Army in August 1942, went overseas in Nov. 1942, and saw service in Africa, before going to France.

He is now in Luxembourg, Germany, at the Mackey station in Cushing, now a warrant electrician in the Navy, is home from France on a leave of 30 days. Before returning he will report to Washington, D. C.

Senior Class Play

Large Audience Was Delighted With Ability Shown By Amateurs

Rockland High School auditorium was filled to capacity last night to witness the presentation of the Senior Class play, "Seven Sisters," a comedy in three acts. Indications are that there will be another large audience tonight, as practically all reserved seats are taken.

A faultless performance was given by every member of the cast. Betty Hempstead, as the widowed mother of the seven sisters, was superb in her acting, and each of the sisters, Joan Abbott, Sandra Halliwell, Edith Carr, Muriel Adams, Virginia McCaslin, Vina Delmonico and Mary Lou Duff, read their parts to perfection.

The men of the cast, Ervin Wooster, Ernest Munro and Jack Hatten, in their colorful uniforms; Vance Norton, Jr., the loveliest baron; Ronald Carver, the shy hisping country cousin, and George Berlawsky, the gaudily uniformed butler, pleased the audience with their dramatic ability. George Berlawsky's little act at becoming sick smacking a cigar, was highly amusing.

Music during the evening was by the High School orchestra, Arthur Cain, director, and Barbara Allen, pianist. Ushers were: Lorraine Iott, Ruth Call, Eleanor Curtis, Virginia Derby, Marjorie Westcott, Helen Manchester, Cella Herrick, Florence Knight, Elaine Achorn, Marilyn Robshaw, Margery Crowley and Dorothy Drinkwater. Alliston E. Smith, sub-master and

Pearl Harbor Day

Winslow-Holbrook Post American Legion, entertained members of Rockland Lodge of Elks last night.

Features of the meeting were a roast beef supper, prepared and served under the direction of Lieut. Com. John C. Gaking, of Portland, who is in charge of Navy recruiting and induction in the State of Maine, and U. S. Navy sound pictures shown by William S. Mullen, Y2c, Navy recruiter.

Lieut. Com. Gaking, said: "It is now three years, five hours and five minutes, since the Japanese struck at Pearl Harbor, and since then the lives of millions of our people have changed." He pointed out that this country had not been bombed, due to the protection afforded by the Navy.

The speaker gave some facts and figures about recruiting for the Navy in the State of Maine and described the set-up of the Navy with its seven bureaus—yards and docks; personnel; ordnance; ships, construction and building; supplies and accounts; medicine and surgery, and aeronautics. Commander Gaking cautioned, "Beware of the Japanese, for they'll try some tricky peace feeler."

Commander Ralph A. Smith conducted the meeting; Charles H. McIntosh, Exalted Ruler of Rockland Lodge of Elks, spoke briefly, and Rev. Alvin G. Hempstead, chaplain of the Post, offered prayers at supper and at opening of the meeting. Color bearers for the meeting were Yeoman Mullen and Danil Enwright, Y2c, both of Portland.

Among the notable bits of Yule- tide decoration found on the street is a large snow scene at Chisholm's, executed by the gifted artist-clerk who cleverly (?) keys her brain- child by making all the Santa Clauses left handed. This display at the State Prison is also bring- ing much favorable comment.

How are YOU going to remember Pearl Harbor?

Sure, you remember the day three years ago when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor. You remember how you felt, then, too—fighting mad.

How about getting fighting mad again today and remembering Pearl Harbor right? Call your Red Cross Blood Donor Center now and make the appointment you've been "meaning to get around to". Buy at least one extra $100 War Bond now, while the 6th War Loan Drive is on. (It costs $600,000 to send a B-29 Bomber over Japan... remember?) Stop in at church sometime during the day for a moment's prayer. And take a solemn vow that you won't let down on your job till total victory is won.

That's how we at Central Maine Power will try to remember Pearl Harbor. Your country needs your whole-hearted support.

Wounded In Germany

Sgt. William H. Allen Has Seen Much Service Overseas

Sgt. William H. Allen

Sgt. William H. Allen, formerly of Brooklyn and native of Rockland, son of Mrs. Grace Allen and the late Ernest Allen, was slightly wounded in Germany Nov. 18 ac- cording to word received by his mother. Sgt. Allen entered the Service June 1941, trained at Fort Devens, Mass., and Fort Bragg, N. C. He went overseas in July 1942 and has figured in the invasions of North Africa, Sicily, and D-Day in France. He is serving with First Division of Engineers and in the First Army.

He is the grandson of Mrs. Har- riet Thomas, Masonic street.

The 93 year-old schooner Wil- liam H. Jewell which sank at the M. B. & C. O. Perry Company wharf was pumped out, raised and beached Wednesday. Van E. Russell, chief of the fire department, and three station men, using the civilian de- fense 500-gallon pump, had the craft, with 30 tons of coal in the hold, afloat in one and one-half hours, and completely pumped out in three hours. The vessel is beached at the wharf of the Rock- land & Rockport Lime Company at the Northend, for repairs.

H. S. Black of Portsmouth, N. H. has received the following letter from his son, Lester L. Black, who is in France, and in which he de- scribes an unexpected meeting with his brother, Lew—both of Rockland.

I had the most wonderful surprise of my life today. I was at the shop this morning, cleaning up my tool box, when I heard someone say, "Do you want to see me?" I figured it was someone in for a repair job, but when I turned around to see who it was, I was speechless, for there stood before me, my kid brother Lew. I was the most ex- cited and happiest boy in the E.T.O. He spent most of the day with me. One of my 1st Lieutenants gave me time off while Lew was here, so we had one good time talking things over. I can't tell you how he found out where I was stationed, but he did and that's all that matters.

Lew had two other boys with him, so we had quite a get-together. Lew looks good, but has lost a little weight. The kid has seen plenty of action and gone through a lot in this old war. At present he is liv- ing in Luxembourg city in a pri- vate home. There are 11 boys on his wire team. They go out and string the wire for the infantry boys.

He calls the lady he lives with, Ma and says she is wonderful; has hot coffee and cake for them when they come in nights and makes their beds and does their laundry.

What I wouldn't give for a chance to get up to see him; it's only a two hour ride, but one never knows in this man's army how long they will be in a place.

I still can't get over how wonder- ful it was to have my kid brother spend a few hours with me and to think we had to come overseas to meet each other, after two years in the Army. I felt like a different boy. I sure did me good to see him, as I was getting down in the dumps.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

More furniture and equipment is needed at the Teen-Age Center at the Community Building. Anyone having tables, chairs, games etc., not in use, wishing to put them to good use by the young people gathered there please call the High School.

Prevues of the Senior Class play, "Seven Sisters" were presented at a joint assembly for Senior and Junior High, Tuesday morning, with Allison E. Smith, dramatic coach, describing the scenes shown. The acting the clever lines, and the interesting costumes produced much enthusiasm for the comedy, and gave the audience an insight into the pleasurable evening they might experience at the production on Thursday or Friday night of this week. Morning devotions were led by Norma Ramsdell, senior.

The class of 1948 in Rockland High has these members:

George Ackley, Marshall Ames, Gloria Axtell.

Irene Barnes, Earle Bartlett, Con- stance Barton, Ruth Bowley, Earl Bradbury, Kenneth Bradley, Eliza- beth Brewster, Carlyle Brown, Anna Bullard.

Diane Camerton, Alice Carter, Marilyn Cates, Roland Chaples, Robert Chatto, Aneta Cokinis, Lew- is Coltart, Henry Conary, Russell Connors, Louise Connely, Linwood Curry, Oliver Curtis.

How are YOU going to remember Pearl Harbor?

Sure, you remember the day three years ago when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor. You remember how you felt, then, too—fighting mad.

How about getting fighting mad again today and remembering Pearl Harbor right? Call your Red Cross Blood Donor Center now and make the appointment you've been "meaning to get around to". Buy at least one extra $100 War Bond now, while the 6th War Loan Drive is on. (It costs $600,000 to send a B-29 Bomber over Japan... remember?) Stop in at church sometime during the day for a moment's prayer. And take a solemn vow that you won't let down on your job till total victory is won.

That's how we at Central Maine Power will try to remember Pearl Harbor. Your country needs your whole-hearted support.

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disease of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatism, loss of appetite, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. These pills help purify the blood and help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper went to Stockton, called by the illness of Mrs. Cooper's father, Isaac Leadbetter.

During the severe storm of last week, considerable damage was done along the waterfront. J. O. Brown & Sons' wharf was completely destroyed; F. L. Brown's fish market was washed into the dock; J. P. Reynolds' wharf was badly damaged; the building and work of the coal wharf was floated and landed on the Cross Islands, besides much other damage all along the Thoroughfare.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waterman are in Boston this week.

The bond rally held Monday at K. P. Hall was a huge success. The hall was filled to capacity and $2000 worth of bonds and stamps were sold. This rally was under the direction of Richard Crockett, with Herman Crockett as master of ceremonies. This fine program was presented: Singing of "America" by all; Salute to the flag; invocation by Rev. Mr. Rice; song, "Remember Pearl Harbor," Corinne, Freda, and Priscilla Mills and Lucille Quinn; monologue by Elizabeth Bunker; selection on the accordion by John Beverage; address by Rev. Mr. Rice; presentation of war stamps to the oldest married couple present and to the youngest person present, these going to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beverage and Mary-Lou Baird; diet "Till We Meet Again," and "My Buddy," by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Raymond; monologue by Elmer Brown; song, "The Army Air Corps" by the High School; song, "You Are My Sunshine," by Hazel Brown, Virginia Brown and Norma Beverage. All took part in singing of Rally war songs and the program was closed by singing the national anthem. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Bloom, Miss Etta Beverage and Herman Crockett. The remainder of the evening was spent at games.

INTIMATE VIEWS OF VINALHAVEN

History, Home Life and Personal Recollections

By SIDNEY L. WINSLOW

(17th Installment)

Although fishing, farming and "coasting" appear to have been the leading industries during the town's early years, shipbuilding must have furnished employment for quite a number of men from the time of the earliest known settlement up to

as late as the late 1800's, but one strange fact concerning it is that, although fishing has always been an important factor here, nearly all the vessels engaged in this pursuit up to the late 60's, were built in Massachusetts.

It has been said that a full rigged ship was built in Fox Island Thoroughfare by Eleazer Crabtree in 1803, but the first vessel of which we have any record of being built in Vinalhaven is a schooner named Polly.

Shipbuilding in Vinalhaven! Gone and so completely forgotten that the greater part of the present citizenry is surprised when informed that we have a record of more than 50 vessels having been built here in days gone by and the list, incomplete, probably doesn't contain one-fourth of the number that were products of local shipyards.

The greater part of the vessels of any considerable size that were built during the interval of which we have any record were constructed in the space that lies between Boman's Salt Lick and the J. P. Armbrust wharf, so called.

Our waterfront has undergone many changes since that time; the harbor's shore line, now skirted by wharves and a large amount of made land, has replaced that which, in former years, was either sand beach or mud flats, and today the site of the former shipyards bears but little semblance to the appearance it presented in those good old days when the Carvers, Lanes, Vinales, Smiths, et al., pushed their quaint but gloriously romantic old windjammers into the waters of Carver's Harbor.

The following list of vessels built here, though a long way from being complete, I believe to be the longest that has been completed to date. The greater part of the vessels listed were "coasters," some of them were engaged in traffic between the West Indies and Gulf ports.

Year 1793, Schr. "Polly," 110 tons, James Babbage and Samuel Lewis, mariners, Vinalhaven.

1794, Schooner "Dolphin," 88 tons, Stephen Carver, farmer, and Matthew Beverage, mariner, Vinalhaven.

Schooner "Fox" (first) 35x37 feet by 12x6 feet, Anthony Ginn and Richard Coombs, mariners, Vinalhaven.

1795, Schooner "Lucy," 13x74 feet x 24 feet x 9 feet, Eleazer Crabtree, gentleman and William Crabtree mariner Vinalhaven.

1796, Sloop "Fox" 84x65 ft. x 21x7 feet, William Vinal, Joseph Waterman, Penelop Winslow, Vinalhaven, Jonas Mills, mariner.

1801, Schooner "Plutus" 95x63 feet x 20x9 feet, Nathan Martin, Vinalhaven, owner and master.

1804, Schooner "Barbara," 94x70 feet x 22x 7 feet, Thomas Cooper, Charles Stewart, Joshua Woodman (Castine), John Small (Butter Island), Henry Alexander.

1815, Schooner "Andrew Jackson" (pinkie), 32x43 feet x 14x7 feet, Peleg Thomas, William Thomas, mariner, Vinalhaven.

1816, Schooner "Mary," 85x60 feet x 21x7 feet, Mark Calderwood, Vinalhaven, owner and master.

1817, Schooner "Hazard," 57x54 feet x 16x8 feet, Ebenezer Calderwood, James Cooper, Vinalhaven, Lemuel Cooper (M). Schr. "Bolina" (pinkie) 50x33 feet x 16x7 feet, Malatia Luce, Vinalhaven, Paul Sawyer (M), Schooner "Eight Sisters," (pinkie), 34x45 feet x 15x6 feet, John Turner, Deer Isle, James Turner (M) Bucksport.

1818, Schr. "Thomas," 106x66 feet x 19x10 feet, Peleg Williams and tives in New York. George Hook is still with a crew with headquarters in Richmond.

Kiddies' Bond Show

Will Be Given At The Park Theatre Saturday Morning — "The Texas Kid"

In co-operation with the War Activities Committee of the Moving Picture Industry, Park Theatre will do its bit for the success of the sixth War Loan Drive in Knox County by putting on a Kiddie Bond Show Saturday morning at 9:30. "The Texas Kid," featuring Johnny MacBrown will be the film shown. Admission will be through the purchase of a bond or a pledge of a bond to be bought during the drive if possible either through the schools or through the Theatre.

As a stimulant for the children to buy bonds and to sell them, Maurice Savoie, manager of the Park has offered prizes to the children of the elementary schools of this city to the ones selling the most number of bonds. Prizes for the high man of each school will also be given and the names of the winners will be announced soon after the completion of the drive.

A spirited contest among the children is already in evidence as they are canvassing friends and relatives in an effort to sell more bonds. Every bond that they sell is credited to them and they really are working hard.

11, at the home of Mrs. Marion Long, Miss Bertha Clason will read on "Furniture Making."

Classic Drama

"Little Women," a three-act play, sponsored by the Senior Class, will be presented at the Town Hall Dec. 15 at 7:30 p. m.

In the cast are: Patricia Wall, Margaret Ames, Evelyn Annis, Priscilla Foster, June Stiles, Jo Anne Bartlett, Joanne Carver, Norma Bartlett and Helen Hall.

Director is Mrs. Grace Brown, social studies teacher.

Men's grown up manner, Jo's tomboy actions, Beth's sweetness, and Amy's important air carry the plot through in great style. Marmee is gentle and kind with her daughters. Aunt March is very gruff and sharp with Aunt Carroll following in her wake. Sallie's daintiness and prettiness are quite a contrast to Jo and Meg. Hannah, the efficient housekeeper, is very firm with the girls but likes to spoil them now and then.

Social Matters

Mrs. U. G. Jameson and Miss Lora Jameson of Belmont, Mass., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Wilson, coming for the observance of the 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. Upon their return home they were accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Keniston.

Chapin Class will hold its monthly supper Tuesday night in the Universalist vestry. Mrs. Ella S. Bird will be chairman.

Shakespeare Society will meet Monday night with Mrs. Louis A. Walker. Miss Annie Frost will be the leader.

The Rockland Junior Women's Club met Monday night with Mrs. Madeline Jackson. There was a joke Christmas tree and plans were discussed for a cooked food sale to be held Dec. 16. Miss Ruth L. Rogers read a paper on the History of the Public Library.

Misses Louise Veazie Mary Ramsdell and Ruth Emery, students at Westbrook Junior College, are home for a month's vacation. Miss Veazie is to be employed at Daniels, Jewelers, and Miss Emery at the First National Bank, through the Christmas season.

Richard A. Rhodes of Portland was in Rockland over the week-end.

James N. East accompanied by Donald Fogg, will leave Tuesday for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will be employed at the Bunkers Hotel. Mr. East will have on his staff a former Rockland man, Lawrence Aylward who is living in Florida.

The familiar Salvation Army kettles put in their appearance today. Every penny dropped into these receptacles, presided over by the patient Army lads and lassies goes toward providing Christmas dinner and cheer for some 40 local families.

Mrs. Leroy Smith of Winterport, president of the Maine P.T.A., will speak on "Organization of Parent-Teacher Associations," at meeting of the Rockland association to be held in the High School auditorium Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

IT'S PATRIOTIC

to save your used food cans. Remove labels, wash, flatten. Put in separate container next to your trash can. Save for local pickup.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTERS

Question—Has modern psychology done away with the need for the Ten Commandments?

Answer—Read Psalm 111:7, 8: "All His commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever."

Q.—Does the Bible say anything about cruelty to animals?

A.—Read Proverbs 12:10: "A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel."

Q.—If I just follow my conscience, will I not always do right?

A.—If it is a good conscience 1 Peter 3:21. Beware of an evil conscience. Hebrews 10:22.

Q.—Is it true that Babylon is to be rebuilt?

A.—The Bible says: "And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there." Isaiah 13:19, 20.

Q.—In Matthew 24:29 Christ said that the sun would be darkened and the stars fall. Has anything like this ever occurred?

A.—The Dark Day of May 19, 1780, and the falling stars on November 3, 1833.

Q.—Who actually wrote the Ten Commandments—God or Moses?

A.—In Exodus 24:12 God said to Moses: "Come up to Me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them." "And He gave unto Moses, when He had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God." Exodus 31:18.

Moses broke these tables when he came down the mountain and saw the people's sins. After that, God said to him: "How these two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest." Exodus 34:1. Moses obeyed: "And he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments." Exodus 34:28. See also Deuteronomy 10:4, 5.

The Big B-29s

Do Stunts At Harvard Field Where Lt. Com. Preston Is A Commander

Metropolitan newspapers are publishing accounts of the Harvard Field, assigned as a tactical training base for B-29 crews. Lieut. Col. Ellery D. Preston, of Rockland is commanding officer of the 482d Bomb Squadron (V. H.) there.

The Harvard field is one of the Second Army Air Force installations at which aerial combat crews are schooled in heavy bombardment tactics. Here are a few figures in the aerial superdreadnaughts: Wing span—141.2 feet, length 98 feet, height 27 feet.

Armament—Fifty caliber machine guns in power turrets and 20 mm. cannon. There is much protective armor.

Power—Four 18-cylinder radial Wright Cyclone engines rated at 2,200 horsepower for takeoff. Each engine is served by two turbosuperchargers to provide high altitude operation.

Propellers—Each engine drives 16½ foot propeller, largest ever installed on an airplane. The propellers are connected by reduction gears so they turn slower.

CHURCHES

SERMONETTE

Bitterly Disappointing

Last week I called attention to the great work now going on in Portland in which 19 denominations and 39 churches were uniting in a common movement to raise their separate budgets. Not only is this taking place in Portland, but sweeping over the country. It is a matter, not alone of solidarity but of common sense and Christian unity.

Just before I left for church this morning, I read that in Pittsburgh the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, sitting in conference had by a 12 to 6 vote, refused membership to the Universalist Church of America.

Dr. Robert Cummings of that body expressed regret that "any body of men and women calling itself 'Christian' should dare to determine upon such action as was taken by the Council" in excluding the Universalist Church.

"We have been motivated only by a selfish desire to join hands with other churches to the end of common endeavor in good work." The writer of this column is by faith and a heritage, leading back to the time when my direct ancestor baptized Roger Williams in the wilderness and helped to found the First Baptist Church in America. I have no claim to make, as to being a good Christian, but I do claim I am a good Baptist.

In common with some other commonwealths, this egotistical concept of being better than others by reason of a claim that they are better grounded on the fundamentals has been carried altogether too far.

First, that is doubtful, even untrue. Peter, in the 11th chapter of Acts, defending his meeting with Cornelius, to the Apostles said, "what was I that I could withstand God?"

Like Dr. Cummings, I regret this action, and I advise the Federal Council to read and ponder the 10th and 11th chapters of the Book of Acts.

W. A. Holman

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson Sermon that will be read in all Churches of Christ. Scientist, on Dec. 10. The Golden Text is: "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom." (I Timothy 4:18). The citations from the Bible include the following passages: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies." (Psalm 103:2-4).

Rev. C. W. Wilson of Freedom, N. H. will be guest speaker at the Littlefield Memorial Baptist Church Sunday at 10:30. Special music will include a selection by the choir. On Sunday morning at 10:45, the pulpit of the Congregational Church will be occupied by Charles C. Cummings of Bangor Theological Seminary. The Comrades of the Way will meet at 6:30.

Lobster License Fee

Merle Dobbins Wants It Increased And Gives Reasons For It

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

There is much interest among the Maine lobster fishermen as to what action the incoming Legislature will take in regard to increasing the lobster license fee from $1 to as much as $25.

There are naturally arguments pro and con on this issue, but it seems that generally the majority of fishermen do favor an increase feeling that such will help eliminate the bad element among the so-called fishermen with only a few lobster traps.

It is definitely known that most of the violations came from this class of fishermen, taking in consideration the good among the bad. There are those in the latter category who deliberately will set their few traps in with the many of the real fishermen using such as a "blind" in giving them an opportunity to haul the traps of the other fishermen in that area.

They do this feeling they have nothing to lose (providing they're not caught) and all to gain in living off the regular fishermen who depend entirely on the lobster haul for their livelihood and have much money invested in gear and equipment.

It is the opinion of many fishermen that an increase of the fee to $10 would help somewhat to eliminate the bad among this type of fishermen with four or five trips.

While the wardens of the Sea and Shore Fisheries Department do their part in keeping the industry clean of such pirating, it is felt an increase of fee would aid in discouraging such camouflaged practices and help protect the fishermen.
